

AGM and Zoom Speakers for Mill Hill U3A 2020/21

(All talks are at 2.00 p.m. unless stated otherwise.)

1. 10th December 2020 at 2.00 p.m. AGM – followed at 3.00 p.m. by a talk by Irene Kyffin, who was formerly a highly regarded lecturer on dyslexia support and has written several pamphlets, which are still in use by tutors and students. Talk is titled Dyslexia - Origin and Recent Research.

Break for Festive Season

2. 7th January 2021 - Helen Fry, who is always in high demand, will return once more to give her talk entitled – "Freud's War" – This is looking at the narrow escape from Vienna of Sigmund Freud and his family, and how his grandson Walter went on to fight for Britain and was parachuted behind enemy lines in WWII.
3. 21st January 2021 – Dr. Jessica Borge, who is a researcher in the field of Contemporary British History. The talk is titled "Protective Practices at the London Rubber Company: Britain's Condom Making Heritage".
4. 4th February 2021 – John Hope, who escaped the tsunami in 2004 with his wife, pays tribute to the people who lost their lives in Sri Lanka. His talk is entitled "Extra Time".
5. 18th February 2021 – Paul Whittle is a retired Major and an excellent and interesting speaker. He is an eminent social and military historian and will talk on The Lady with the Lamp – The Florence Nightingale Story.
6. 4th March 2021 – Mick Casson will give a talk on "The Tower of London, All Creatures Great and Small".
7. 18th March 2021 – Pauline Martindale will return to give another of her very popular talks. This one is called "Me and My Camera, Around the UK". It is possible we may be able to travel around the UK more freely then!